Clark-Moores Middle School School-Based Decision Making Council Discipline and Classroom Management Policy

The school staff and principal shall implement the district and school code of acceptable student behavior and discipline. Copies of these codes shall be distributed in a timely manner each year to all staff and parents using the Student Handbook. The Discipline Committee shall review the school Code of Conduct yearly to ensure school rules contained in the Code maintain a safe and orderly environment that allows every student to learn at his/her highest level. It is the responsibility of the student and parent/guardian to know the rules contained in the school code of conduct. Parent/guardians shall support the staff as they implement the code.
